Upon completion of our course, which has a total of 960 class hours, students who wish to receive the Phil Young's English School Certificate of Proficiency in English are required to demonstrate their competence in one of three third-party tests: International TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language), Institutional TOEFL or TOEIC (Test of English for International Communication).

The scores on these third-party tests serve as objective criteria of excellence through which the proficiency of our students can be evaluated, as well as the effectiveness of our competency-based teaching program. To maintain high standards in our school and to guarantee the meaningfulness of our certificate, we only award it to those students who obtain a score of at least 173 on the International TOEFL, 500 on the Institutional TOEFL or 650 on the TOEIC.

A special certificate "With Honors" is awarded to students who score between 213 and 249 on the International TOEFL, between 550 and 599 on the Institutional TOEFL, or between 750 and 899 on the TOEIC. A certificate "With Highest Honors" is awarded to those who score 250 or above on the International TOEFL, 600 or above on the Institutional TOEFL, or 900 or above on the TOEIC.

Guilherme Marques Arruda's score on the Institutional TOEFL was 553.
